

A Prayer to Reflect God's Love

Heavenly Father,

Thank You for seeing beyond what I see in myself. While I often appear as an unpolished stone, You see the treasure hidden within me—the beauty within me which You created for Your glory. It humbles me to know that You, the Creator of the universe, call me Your jewel, your precious possession.

Lord, I release my unforgiveness, doubts, and self-perceived flaws into Your hands. Shape me into the masterpiece You intended from the beginning. While a gemologist chisels away at a rough stone to reveal its brilliance, I pray you will refine me through Your Word and Spirit so I may reflect Your light.

Teach me to meditate on Your name and keep You at the forefront of my mind throughout the day. Let my thoughts, actions, and words glorify, exalt, and magnify You as my LORD. May my life be a testimony of faithful devotion, even amid a world that may not honor You.

Father, I trust Your process. I know You are crafting me to shine for Your glory. Thank You for making me part of Your plan, a reflection of Your love, and a treasure in Your kingdom.

*In Jesus' name, I pray.
Amen.*
