

A Prayer of Anticipation and Reflection

Jesus,

Oh, how my heart longs for the day I will see You face to face—to look into the face of the one who sought me, found me, and called me Your own. Until that day, let my life reflect Your grace and love, pointing others to You.

You created me in Your image, and through Your blood, You have made me new. When I feel unseen or unworthy, remind me that I am cherished by You. Your love surrounds me, Your voice encourages me, and Your Spirit strengthens me to walk in faith. Thank You for carrying me through the rough places and whispering truth to my soul.

Awaken Your Spirit within me, Lord. Let Your light shine so brightly in my life that others are drawn to You. May my words and actions reflect the joy and peace which comes from knowing You. Help me embrace each day as preparation for the home You are preparing for me—where I will dwell with You forever.

Thank You for this journey of faith. May my life be an offering that glorifies You and brings hope to others. Keep shaping me into who You designed me to be. Fill me with Your love, so I may pour it out into a world in need.

Until I stand before You, Jesus, let me never tire of seeking Your presence. You are my greatest treasure.

In Your precious name,

Amen.
